

Instructions: Shuffle the coloured cards and place them face down on a table. The first player flips over a card and says: "Betty Sheep is + [colour]", then flips over the second card. If the player finds a pair, they should say, "It's a pair!", but if not, they should say, "It isn't a pair!" Place the cards face down again and the next player should take a turn.

Instructions: Shuffle the coloured cards and place them face down on a table. The first player flips over a card and says: "Betty Sheep is + [colour]", then flips over the second card. If the player finds a pair, they should say, "It's a pair!", but if not, they should say, "It isn't a pair!" Place the cards face down again and the next player should take a turn.